Recent Work Experience and Projects:

FetchMi (2016-Present)

Fetchmi is a venture-backed technology startup co-founded by myself and a group of friends at Emory University. I spend the majority of my free time on fetchmi.com, including design front end coding, and back-end coding. Fetchmi uses LAMP stack.

Emory Course Critique (2017-2018)

I helped build a course review site for my university (currently in the trial stage). I worked mostly on the front end using React.
